Mosaic Celebrates the Holidays at the DIA

Internationally acclaimed Mosaic Youth Theatre of Detroit brings the warmth, joy and good cheer of the holiday season to the Detroit Film Theatre inside the newly renovated Detroit Institute of Arts this December 14-16, with the premiere of “Woodward Wonderland: A Detroit Holiday Celebration.”

Through song and dance, this energetic production takes the audience on a nostalgic theatrical journey to magical destinations such as Toyland on the 12th floor of the old J.L. Hudson’s Department Store, and to the windy 1990 Thanksgiving Day Parade when the Chilly Willy float made its memorable escape down Woodward Avenue.

◆ In the tradition of holiday classics like The Nutcracker, Woodward Wonderland puts a unique Detroit spin including performances by special guest artists from LaShelle’s School of Dance and choral holiday music by the award-winning Mosaic Singers. ◆ The production will include two original short plays by local playwright Barton Bund, along with oral history pieces written by

- Mosaic Founder and CEO, Rick Sperring, and members of the Mosaic Youth Ensemble.

- on the holiday season, paying tribute to the metro area’s many rich holiday traditions, including the church performances of Handel’s Messiah, ice skating at Campus Martius Park, and listening to Motown Christmas albums.

- Audience members will be entertained by a cast of more than 100 performers,

- Performances of Woodward Wonderland take place at 8 p.m. on Friday, December 14 and Saturday, December 15. ◆ There is a 4 p.m. show on Sunday, December 16. Tickets are $20 for general admission and $12 for students and seniors with valid ID. ◆ Tickets can be purchased at the DIA box office by calling 313.833.4005, or by visiting www.mosaicdetroit.org. ◆ For groups of 10 or more, call 313.872.6910 ext. 4021 to reserve your specially priced tickets. ◆ Don’t wait too long. ◆ Get your tickets today!
