

The Skillman Foundation Presents

GOOD STUFF

for kids & families

It's Girl Scout Cookie Time

The Girl Scout Cookie Program helps girls gain valuable knowledge while providing the community with wonderful treats!

Through voluntary participation in this comprehensive leadership program, girls age 6 through 17 gain experience and expertise in finance, marketing, and public speaking. ♦ They also develop self-confidence and gain practice in goal-setting and project management.

Troops that sell Girl Scout Cookies earn money to fund their troop's activities, with additional proceeds benefiting the Girl Scouts of Metro Detroit will wrap up the season with the 6th Annual Cookie Gala at The Roostertail. ♦ The Gala features the culinary artistry of eight area chefs, each of whom will "glamorize" a Girl Scout Cookie variety into a gourmet dessert. ♦ Visit www.gsofmd.org/cookiegala for more information and photos from last year's event.

- troop's council. ♦ Financial aid,
- diversity awareness, drug abuse and
- teen pregnancy prevention programs,
- leadership, creative arts, science and
- technology programs, and camp
- maintenance are among the council
- programs and activities funded in part
- by the Girl Scout Cookie Program.

For more information, call 313.972.GIRL (4475) or e-mail www.gsofmd.org.

- This year's cookies will be arriving by the truckload and are coming soon to neighborhoods across metro Detroit. ♦
- Cookie booths have been popping up in most major shopping centers since February 8.

- Cookie lovers in Wayne and Oakland counties can visit the Girl Scouts of Metro Detroit Web site – www.gsofmd.org to find out where and when they can purchase cookies from a cookie booth.

The Skillman FOUNDATION

100 Talon Centre Drive,
Suite 100 Detroit, MI 48207
313.393.1185

WWW.SKILLMAN.ORG
MAILBOX@SKILLMAN.ORG