Good stuff for kids & families

Harding Elementary Marches for Black History!

Students, staff and families gathered around the main entrance of Harding Elementary on Thursday, February 28 and listened intently to pre-selected fifth graders from Ms. Hornbuckle's class proudly and loudly read the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s "I Have a Dream" speech.

How fitting.

Warren G. Harding Elementary School, built in 1930 and named after the 29th President of the United States, is a reconstituted school, starting fresh – with big dreams – along with a new, committed and highly qualified principal, Sharon Harvell, staff, dedicated parents and a strong community involvement, committed to working together to build an outstanding learning community.

The march was planned to celebrate Black History: the freedoms, rights and contributions of African Americans. ◆ The event was sponsored by the Harding Local School Community Organization (LSCO) and attended by students in Pre-K through Fifth grades, along with staff and parents.

Harding Elementary, we salute you!

Harding's Mission: To educate all students to their fullest potential academically, socially, physically and emotionally in a safe, clean and healthy environment where they will develop positive attitudes, a high level of self-discipline, pride in themselves, their school and their community, with collaborative support from the home, school and community.
