Good Stuff About Our Grantees

Fun Nights for the Whole Family

Village Builders of Northwest Detroit is a volunteer organization made up of caring community members, churches and other groups in Northwest Detroit.

Its purpose is to provide healthy ways for families with preschool and elementary-age children to be involved in fun and educational activities.

Village Builders is committed to helping young children feel the warmth of living in a caring and encouraging community - as all children should. ♦ Each month - on

- a Friday between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. ♦
- - there is a Family Fun Night. ♦
- Family Fun Nights begin with a light supper and are followed by the scheduled program. ♦ It is always fun, and parents are encouraged to enjoy this experience with their children.
- There are two remaining fun nights coming up soon!
- • "There's Something About Science," a collaboration with the Cranbrook Science Center, will be held on Friday, April 27, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. ♦ This session will be great for elementary-age children, and as always, all family members are welcome. ♦ Kids and parents alike will be able to explore and take part in lots of hands-on activities. ♦ The event is being held at Christ the King Roman Catholic Church, located at 16800 Burt Road at Grand River. ♦ Parking is available behind the church, and the event is held in the fellowship hall.

- "Meet Corduroy the Bear Story Night." Corduroy is the well-known bear with the missing button (in Don Freeman books). ♦ This happens on Friday, May 11, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., and will be awesome for preschool and early elementary-school age. ♦ Every child will get a book to take home. Location for this event is at St. Christopher St. Paul Episcopal Church, located at 20750 McNichols at Braile. ♦ Parking is available behind the church. ♦ Kids should bring their own teddy bears to meet Corduroy!

Village Builders' office is located at St. Christopher St. Paul Episcopal Church. They can be reached at 313.538.2320, or you can email villagebuilders.nwdet@yahoo.com.
