Music Hall Kicks Off Fall Programs

Music Hall is committed to educating youth on the experiences and the rewards found in the performing arts world.

They believe that exposure to the arts can have a positive impact with respect to both academic and personal success, and is an important addition to the work of our local schools.

Through several innovative and effective programs, Music Hall teaches thousands of Detroit children about music, dance and theatre, offering students the opportunity to learn from, and share the stage with, some of the most respected performers in the artistic world. ♦ In addition, each season Music Hall offers low-cost tickets or free admission for thousands of students to experience and grow from exposure to live performances.

Speaking of live performances?
Coming Sunday, October 14, at 4 p.m. is "Darwin Electroluminescent Adventure." ♦

♦ "Darwin" is a unique and innovative theater experience. Electroluminescent crayon-like creatures light up the stage with a surprisingly heart-rending tale - a dinosaur discovers the true meaning of life. ♦ Creators Corbin Popp and Ian Carney meld artistry and technology in a wonderful way. ♦ Let your parents know, this is a must see! Tickets for children under 12 years of age are $7; all others pay just $17. ♦ For ticket purchases or more information, call 313.887.8501, or visit Music Hall's box office at 350 Madison Avenue in Detroit. ♦ Tickets are also available at www.ticketmaster.com.

♦ In case you were wondering, the Fall session of Music Hall's Perform! just began in September. ♦ Perform! includes one-of-a-kind educational and entertaining activities for Detroit youth year-round.

♦ The two featured programs are:

• Theater Time - This program is for children between the ages of 10-17. ♦ It includes structured singing, dancing and acting, and having lots of fun. ♦ "Grease" is the selected musical for Theater Time's 2007 Fall session. ♦ This program is offered in four eight-week sessions.

• Jazz for Young People - This program is geared toward the musical stars in the family who are between the ages of 12-17. ♦ There will be several master classes conducted by world-renowned jazz greats for intermediate and advanced music students. ♦ Jazz for Young People explores the entire style of jazz through forum discussions, simple instruments, live bands, and open mic in the Jazz Café at Music Hall.

In order to get involved and join the fun, call to RSVP with Educational Outreach Coordinator Alana Wright at 313.887.8524 or alanaw@musichall.org.
