GOOD STUFF

for kids & families

A Learning Center that Assists the Whole Family

The Shurly Family Learning Center is a collaboration of Leaps and Bounds Family Learning Services and The Development Centers, Inc., which includes the Brightstars program.

This family staple has been serving the community since 1988 - almost a decade - and its mission has remained the same: To focus creative and collaborative action on the health, education and social and economic needs of high-risk and low-income children and families.

The Center provides activities for both adults and children alike. ♦ For adults, the center provides GED preparation, adult basic education, job readiness and computer skills. ♦ The Brightstars program provides parent/child

The Center is located at 20830 Acacia in Detroit, which is on the Harding Elementary School campus in the Brightmoor Community. ♦ You may reach the Center by calling 313.541.5145 or shurlycenter@comcast.net.

For additional information about becoming a volunteer or questions about other programs, go to www.leapsnbounds.org, or call Monique Hayes at 313.541.5145.
