Lively Designs Create Thanksgiving Magic for All

This year's 81st America's Thanksgiving Parade® continued its tradition of making smiles appear on faces of folks of all ages.

The Skillman Foundation has been instrumental for 16 years in allowing kids to use their imaginations and be rewarded for sketching their fantasy and witnessing it become an amazing reality. ♦ How exciting! ♦ This excitement and magic continue to remind us why we all should care so much about the parade.

The pictures are evidence that a good time was had by all! ♦ Kenyatta Dearing, a 4th grader from Fleming Academy in Detroit, struts in front of her winning balloon design, "Sunflower from the Community Garden." ♦ Guadalupe Barrera, an 8th grader from Clippert Academy in Detroit, stood tall and proud on her float, "The Dancing Flower Garden."
