

What Michiganders want:

Investment in children.

ISSUED BY

Michigan's
Children

CONDUCTED BY

Phone survey of 800 likely 2022 General Election voters in Michigan

Conducted July 27 – August 3, 2021

Michiganders expect more investment in children.

62% support

Michiganders expect more investment in children.

Even if it raises their taxes.

58% support

Michiganders expect more investment in children.

Across every region
of our state.

Top Concerns

Kids falling behind in school because of the pandemic

87%

Kids living in households that struggle to afford basic needs

82%

Exposure to trauma in homes & communities

81%

Kids' mental health

79%

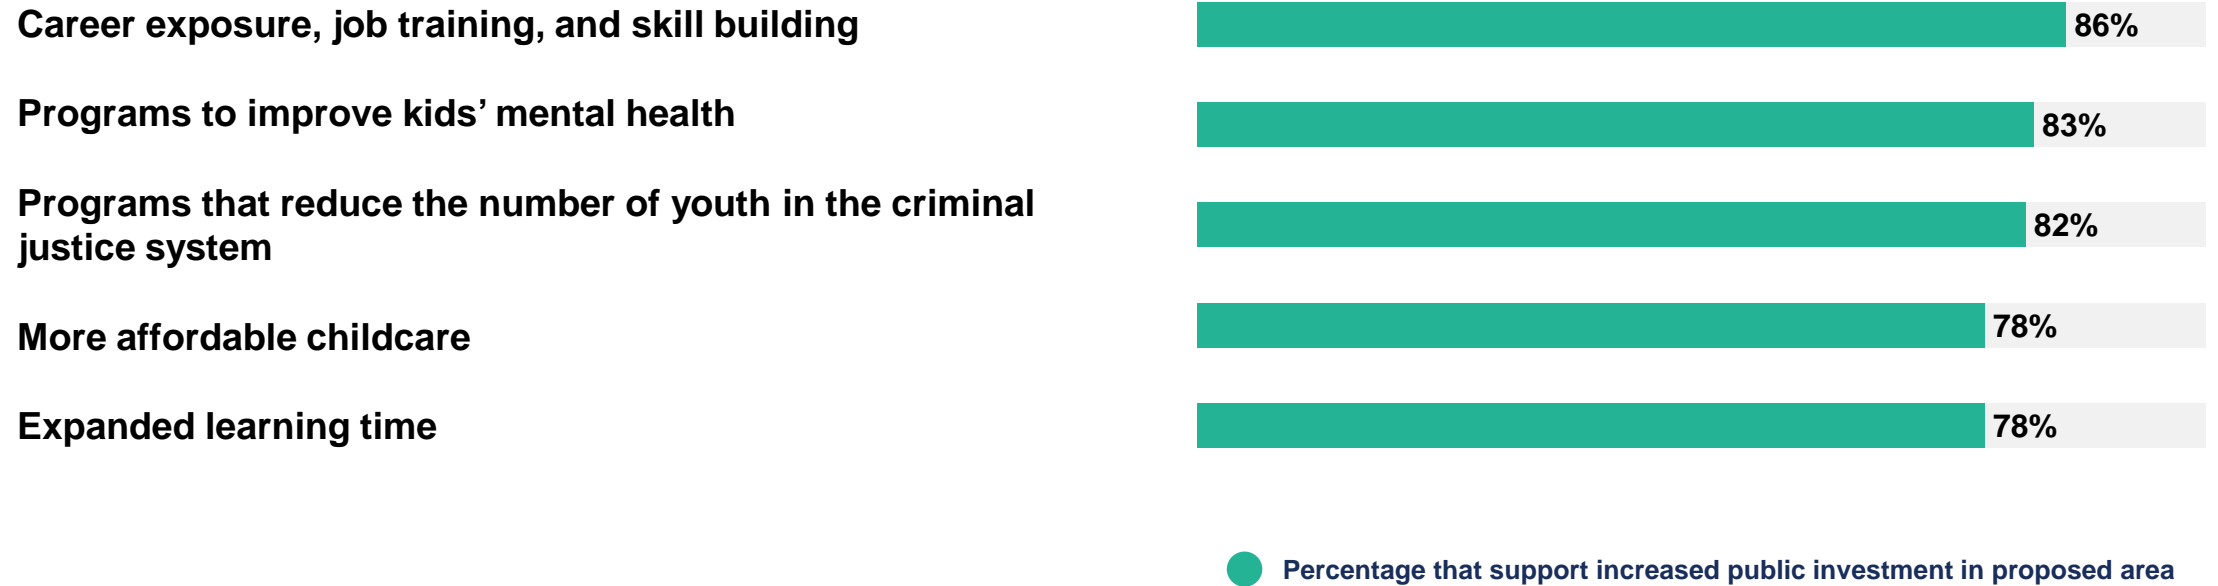

Not every kid getting the learning supports they need

78%

● Percentage that say it is a problem

Where should investments be made?

What the future looks like with more investment in children

Outcomes deemed most important by voters:

Fewer children will experience abuse or neglect

The number of youth in the juvenile justice system will decrease

Children will be better prepared for the workforce & a successful future

Kids' mental health will improve

Michigan's economy will improve

Economic & racial inequity will be reduced

What Michiganders want:

Investment in children.

